OF GAZETTES mailed to a party in the eastern end of the State, full one-third of them fail to reach their destination, being stolen by postmasters or their clerks. Now, we do not blame Conservative officials for wanting to read what we print. So far they show good sense and taste; but we protest against the gratification of this laudable curiosity by means of petty larceny. If they want to enlighten their ignorance, let them pay the cost of instruction without grumbling. If they must crib newspapers that do not belong to them, let them take those of their own party, and plead, as they reasonably may, in justification, that there was no value in what they took.

MR. A. K. MCCLURE, under the signature of HORACE, in the last issue of the Chambersburg Repository, made some wild and misleading figures on the Senatorship question. For instance, he credits Philadelphia with having fifteen members of the two Houses of the General Assembly; of these he gives seven to CURTIN, three to CAMERON and holds five doubtful. Now, the facts are, Philadelphia has four Senators and eighteen Representatives, making twenty-two in all, instead of fifteen. If the other seven are not pledged to any body and are not doubtful, what is to become of them?

GENTLEMEN who claim to be thoroughly informed about the matter, say the Southern leaders expect the Constitutional amendment to be ratified; that when it shall become part and parcel of the organic law most, if not all, the Southern States will consent to enfranchise the blacks upon condition that the disabilities imposed by the third section are removed. It is said South Carolina will lead the way. The danger is that having got rid of the penalties of the third section the Southern constitutions would be changed so as to exclude the blacks again.

LAST spring, when the French Emperor, through his Minister at Washington, promised to recall his troops from Mexico in three installments, the first, at the beginning of the present month, we took occasion to say the Bonapartes were not famous for telling the truth, and that the troops would not move as agreed. October came, but the first division of the French army has not gone from Mexico. It will never go because the Emperor has pledged his word, but only because he finds the movement necessary.

A MEMBER of the Virginia Legislature who, when it was rumored that General Butler was to be appointed to the command of Richmond, offered a resolution that the people be notified to bury their "portable property," as Mr. Wemmick termed it, has turned out a defaulter to the tune of fifty thousand dollars. He evidently buried some body's property where the owner could not find it. He is about a fair sample of the whole lot of men who deal in that sort of stuff.

A NEW plan has been proposed for supplying London with water. It is no less than constructing an acqueduct from Marten Mere, on the borders of Wales, to the high ground about ten miles north of London, a distance of one hundred and eigaty-three miles. The calculation is that water can be obtained by this method sufficient to supply seven millions of people, or four millions more than the present number of inhabitants.

WHEN MR. Johnson came to the Presidency he found the editor of the radical organ Postmaster at Cleveland, Ohio. He held on to his, for a while. Then he turned him out, and put in the editor of the conservative organ. Last week he turned him out, and put in the editor of the copperhead organ. That is an apt illustration of the Rogue's March.

ALLUDING to the threat to indict him for exciting insurrection in Maryland, Colonel Forney keenly says:

"Our fate is evidently sealed. Never having counterfeited money, got drunk in the Senate chamber, poisoned cities, starved prisoners, assassinated a white man, or murdered a score of blacks, we are removed from the pale of Presidential pardon, and must prepare for the worst."

GEN. HARTRANFT, Auditor General of Pennsylvania, has accepted a commission as Colonel in the regular army, and will leave Harrisburg on November 1st. This gives the filling of the vacancy for two years to Gov. Curtin. It looks now as if a Chester county man would get the place.

SOME of the Fenian invaders of Canada have been tried and convicted. The Fenians are surprised that Great Britain refuses to recognize their foray as a legitimate war. Some other people are not.

THE President is fast taking all the Copperhead candidates, who were defeated in the October elections, under his special patronage. As fast as vacancies can be made he is shoving them into snug offices.

GOV. SWANN has resolved to remove the Police Commissioners of Maryland before the November election. Where a will of this sort exists, reasons will be found to assign to the public.

THE Union Pacific Railroad excursionists arrived at the one hundredth meridian on the 26th inst., and spent the day in hunting and fishing. On the next day they started on the return trip.

THE Newark Advertiser predicts that with a vigorous effort there will be a Republican gain of two members of Congress in New Jersey.

EVIDENCE accumulates that the Emperor Napoleon is in a hopeless condition of health, and that his death may be expected at any moment.

MR. E. B. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, is compelled by condition of his health to refrain from taking part in the canvass.

For the year ending June 30th, 1865, the excise tax was paid on only 17,106,449 tons of coal mined in the United States.

MEXICAN QUESTION IN PARIS.

The South American War.

A FIERCE ENGAGEMENT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Paris correspondent of the Times, writing from Paris, under date of October 15th, gives the following as the upshot of the Mexican matter as viewed from that point:

The policy adopted by the French government on the Mexican question is not simply limited to the withdrawal of the army of occupation. It embraces three other important measures connected with the first, the settlement of which will probably occur all at once so as to facilitate the evacuation of Mexico and put forever an end to the intervention of the French in that country. The first of these measures has for its object to secure the French debt; the second has reference to the immediate abdication of Maximilian; the third aims at the restoration of the Mexican republic under the presidency of a native born leader, who will not have been compromised in any of the civil struggles, and who will then be enabled to offer himself to the choice of the nation without much opposition from any quarter.

Unless some more satisfactory way of paying the French debt is found, the French government will stick to the contract passed with Maximilian, and will, in consequence, occupy the harbors of Vera Cruz, Tampico, Mazatlan and others, where she will collect half of the custom house duties which have been ceded to her in the aforesaid contract, but if the United States were willing or deserving to take the place of France and collect, themselves, the aforesaid revenue the French governments would make room for them and abandon Mexico entirely, on condition that they should guarantee the French debt, for the payment of which, the most liberal terms would be granted.

The World's Buenos Ayres correspondence of September 5th, gives the following intelligence of the war between Paraguay and Brazil, and the present situation of the hostilities: When, in 1864, Brazil aided General Flores in his revolutionary efforts in Uruguay, Lopez sent a messenger to say that he would not permit it, but Brazil proceeded and carried the Flores rebellion to a successful revolution, and Lopez sent an army to take Matto Grosso, a rich Brazilian province. This he still keeps. When the Argentine Republic refused to give him permission to cross her territory to invade Brazil, he immediately declared hostility against her at once, without notice or declaration of war. With varied fortune he has carried on this war, first invading his republic and then Brazil, and afterwards he carried along his own jungles and swamps, and as soon as the invading army was across the river he has set down before them not 2,000 yards distant and there he has remained for these many months.

Fort Humaita is six leagues above the confluence of the Paraguay and the Parana Rivers. It is at a bend of the river where the channel is very close to the shore. The fort and along the bank for 1,500 yards the Fort extends, and two hundred pieces of cannon can play at once on anything that attempts to pass. Below there is a small island, directly opposite there are two heavy chains across the river. About two leagues below this is Fort Curapoite, with but few guns, but with three lines of defences landwards and at the entrance of the channel. The allies entered Paraguay at Fort Itapiru, which they took and now hold, and in the same position taken four months ago. Nothing serious or decisive has occurred with every movement.

There is reason to believe that the Paraguayans are unwilling to die in the last ditch, as did those of their own accord seldom, if ever, surrender. It is believed that Lopez has in camp now twenty thousand men, with garrisons at Humaita and at Curapoite. All along from the Estero Bellaio, where the army now is, to the capital, there is a system of defences among the passes of swamps. For months the Fort Curapoite has been in the way of further progress of the fleet.

On September first an effort was made to reduce it. A forest of masts moved up Paraguay river, and about 2 o'clock below the fort a masked battery opened on the ships with thirteen well directed guns. They all drew off but six iron-clads which stood in together all day. A terrible and incessant fire was kept up from the river and shore. Once an iron-clad, leaving a port-hole open, received two shells through it, killing ten men. Next morning the battle was continued. At two P. M. the ships landed a force to attack by land, and at the same time a torpedo was sent floating up the current toward the fleet. It struck the Rio De Janeiro, the best iron-clad in the navy, and blew her up. She cost $75,000, and, it is said, had on board three hundred men. The fight was then at an end and the enemy fell into Brazilian hands.

At sundown the allies report killed and wounded one thousand. The loss of Paraguay not yet known. Two bomb vessels were injured besides the iron clad. At the last moment the Paraguayans in Fort Curugu spiked their guns and blew up their magazines. The place was abandoned widely and the panic there was great. Brazil has ordered up ten thousand fresh troops and this republic is called on for three thousand more. The forces of the allies now number about three hundred thousand. Two young Americans are making torpedoes for the Paraguayans.

THE FENIANS.

The United States and the Fenian Sentences—Note from Secretary Seward—The Records of the Case to be Examined and the President to Act According to them.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The following documents have been received here:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, Oct. 27, 1866.

D. Thurston, Esq., Consul at Toronto, C. W., Dear Sir:—For your information I enclose a copy of a note of this date, which I have addressed to Sir Frederick W. A. Bruce, the British Minister here, upon the subject of the conviction and sentence of James Lynch and McMahon by a colonial court of Canada, on the charge of complicity and participation in the late attack on Fort Erie. In accordance with the purpose expressed in the communication, you are expected to procure without delay, for the use of the Department, a copy of the record of the trial and conviction of Lynch and McMahon, and also of all further trials and convictions of a similar character which shall take place in Canada, with the least possible delay after their termination.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,
(Signed,) WILLIAM H. SEWARD

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, October 25, 1866.

SIR.—It is understood that James Lynch and John McMahon have been recently convicted in a Colonial court of Canada, and sentenced to death upon an charge, being citizens of the United States, they were actors in the assault made in the month of June last on Fort Erie, in that colony. It can hardly be necessary to direct your attention to the fact that the Government of the United States is required by the highest considerations of national dignity, duty and honor to inquire into the legality, justice and regularity of the judicial proceedings which have thus taken place, and that after making such a careful scrutiny we shall expect to intercede in favor of humanity. Government such opinions as the President, upon due consideration, shall adopt.

With this view the Consul of the United States, at Toronto, has duly been instructed to procure for the information of this Department a copy of the record of the trial and conviction of Lynch and McMahon, and also of all further trials and convictions of a similar character, which shall take place in Canada. While no unnecessary delay in the examinations of the cases which are this expected to come before you is desired or expected. It may, nevertheless, happen hereafter that delays may unavoidably result from past incidents or from future events which cannot now be foreseen.

I have now the honor to request you to take such proceedings as you may think proper to the end, and that such applications be then you shall be competent granted. The President directs me to assure you of his confidence, and hope that Her Majesty's government will not only interfere with the steps that have thus made, but they will think it proper also, to examine the judicial proceedings aforesaid with a careful regard to the rights of the United States, and to the maintainance of good relations between the two countries. Such reinations are always difficult and delicate in States that are adjacent to each other, without being separated by impassible boundaries. For this reason it is the more very gratifying to the President, if you should be able to give me an assurance that the execution of the sentences pronounced upon the convicted prisoners will be suspended, if occasion for delay shall arise in the manner before mentioned to make it effectual. Finally, I beg to remind you that the offences involved in these trials are in the nature imminently political. It is the opinion of this government that sound policy coincides with that humane and magnanimous lent nature in recommending tenderness, amnesty and forgiveness in such cases. This suggestion is made with freedom and earnestness, because the same principle has been applied by us in our recent civil war by all the governments and public isles of Europe, and by none of them with greater frankness and kindness than by the government of which you are a great Britain. I am very sure that you will find that these recommendations of a policy of clemency will be agreeable to the Emperor, in whose name you are accredited, as in entire harmony with all the suggestions and representations which this Government has made to Her Majesty's Government in regard to the aggressions which have been made on the Canadian frontier, and that they are also in harmony with the proceedings which this Government has thought it right to take in pursuance in regard to the violation of its own neutrality laws, which was involved in these aggressions.

I have the honor to be, with the highest consideration, Sir, your obedient servant,
(Signed,) WM. H. SEWARD.

To the Hon. Sir Frederick W. A. Bruce.

The Fenian Prisoners—Blood Thirst in Canada—Their Treasure.

NEW YORK, October 28.—The Herald's Toronto special says: From all parts of the provinces dispatches are coming demanding that no mercy should be shown to the Fenians found guilty. A bank clerk named Brown can find evidence strong enough to convince the jury that the Rev. Dr. Lumsden was in any way connected with the raiders last June. The speech made to the jury in New York hating the death of these men if executed do great injury to the prisoners. Petitions are to be circulated immediately and sent to the Governor General to be forwarded to the Home Government to have the sentence commuted to imprisonment. Three prisoners were arraigned to-day and pleaded not guilty. They were Timothy Lynch, Patrick Norton and Daniel Drummond. Fears are expressed by a majority of the people that the Fenians may escape before the day of their execution through the aid of their friends from the other sides.

There are now in the city over five hundred Irish Americans, prisoners of the government, and waiting to do something which I believe is to aid the prisoners confined in the old jail by overpowering their guards and then escaping to the United States. Nine Fenian prisoners at Cornwall are to be indicted on Monday for high treason, and are to be tried on the following Wednesday, if the grand jury find true bills against them.

The Fenians in St. Louis—Committee on Organization Appointed.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—James Stephens appointed ten prominent Fenians in this city as a Committee on organization for the State of Missouri. It is said that the league control of the Brotherhood in this State, and are authorized to establish circles, commission officers with military men in the interest of Ireland, collect funds and war material for the use of the Irish Republic, and in all other ways compatible with the laws of the United States to serve the cause of Ireland. The committee called upon all friends of Ireland to immediately organize and put themselves in communication with the Committee and from whom all necessary information and instruction may be obtained. A meeting of the Fenians has been called for Tuesday night to consider what action is necessary to be taken in the case of Father McMahon and Dr. Lynch, sentenced to death by the British Government.

A Buffalo Protest Against the Result of Fenian Trials.

BUFFALO, Oct. 28.—There was a meeting to-night at St. James Hall, in response to the call in yesterday's papers, and was fully attended. Great numbers of persons were unable to gain entrance to the hall. Among the speakers was Senator A. L. Morrison, F. B. The object of the meeting was to protest the result of the Fenian trials in Canada, and devise means or at least threaten retaliation if the sentences should be carried into effect. The American flag, which, with the Irish National flag, was borne through the hall, was draped in mourning. The British Government and Canadian officials were denounced, and the greatest excitement and enthusiasm prevailed. A second indignation meeting will be held to-morrow evening.

Fenian Excitement in New York.

The Battle of Exmiquilpian—Belgian Legion Cut to Pieces—French Troops Leaving—The President and the Fenians—Lower California Land Grant, etc.

WASHINGTON, October 28.—The Mexican Minister has received dispatches from the city of Puebla, Mexico, containing the official report of the battle of Exmiquilpian, in which the Belgian legion was entirely cut to pieces. Colonel Vanderweissen, the Belgian commander, attacked Exmiquilpian, a place thirty-eight leagues from the city of Mexico, defended by Mexicans, who repulsed the Belgian demonstration. The Belgian legion lost twenty officers killed on the spot. The legion retired to Exmiquilpian, and after a short battle fell into the hands of the Mexicans. The officers who survived the battle have since embarked at Vera Cruz for Belgium.

VERA CRUZ, October 12, 1866—H. P. N.—The St. Mazaire steamer arrived here early this evening, General Castleman being on board. His instructions are to send to France in two detachments all the troops that are here. The troops bring the message from Napoleon to Maximilian, advising him to abdicate in favor of anybody he pleases and to go home. He is authorized to offer him a passage on board the French flag, with a view that he may return safely to Meramera. Marquis De Gallifet has no mission of any kind, and he only comes to join his regiment on board the Orinoco.

General Bazaine came to Puebla to meet General Castleman. The general feels very sore against Maximilian for the very discreditable position that Empress Carlotta has spread in Europe.

It is understood the President has interposed his good offices in behalf of Lynch and McMahon, the Fenians convicted in Canada, but no movement has yet been set on foot for their pardon.

The grant for the colonization of the vacant lands of Lower California to an American company, composed of Ben. Holladay, Caleb Cushing, William G. Fargo, Gen. Butler, Francis Morris, Edward S. Sanford, William H. Travers, George Wilkes and others, has received the sanction of the Mexican Government, and the parties recently received their formal order of possession through the Mexican Minister at Washington.

The Herald may be recollect was made exterior to the arrival of Maximilian in Mexico, consequently its title is held to be without objection, and also that the grant to an American company gives it the right to protection which is entitled to American protection. The Colonists are authorized to make all necessary laws and regulations for their government provided they do not infringe on the Mexican constitution and general laws of the Republic.

The articles of agreement are very liberal to the parties directly interested, it being one of the Mexican laws to encourage the colonization of American citizens for the development of the resources of the country.

So far from its being true, as has been stated, that Maximilian has declined and intimated an extension of time for the withdrawal of French troops from Mexico, the accounts received in this city, dictated that they will be all removed from that country in a much shorter period of time than that heretofore mentioned by the French government.

Evidence Before Gov. Swann—No Trouble Anticipated—Ortega Not to Enter Mexico Until Gen. Sheridan Consents.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Herald's Annapolis special says: The examination of the Police Commissioners of Baltimore was continued yesterday and much evidence showing the bad character of the election judges, special constables and police appointed by the Commissioners was elicited. It is believed that the Commissioners will be relieved and no difficulty is feared in the event of such action.

The Herald's Mexican special of 14th says: The Mexican Consul was here to-day and enquired at the military headquarters if Ortega would be prevented from entering Mexico. The General-in-Chief said that the Consul General Crosby advised him that Ortega should not attempt to leave until the General returns to-morrow. Ortega has a large force encamped on the Rio Grande across with him, but the policy of the Government is clearly defined, and he will not be permitted to enter Mexico at present.

Sanda Anna publishes a letter in which he denounces the plan which a Boston journal has attributed to the American Government of guaranteeing the debts due by Maximilian's Empire to France, in consideration of the cession to the United States of a portion of Mexican territory. He says "Mexico has nothing to sell to-day, and will not pay it. At all events the people of Mexico through its Congress will decide what is to be done with it."

The Sentence of Fenian Colonel Lynch—Distiller's Cases Settled.

NEW YORK, October 27.—The Express says: The sentence of Colonel Lynch to death, still continues to be an exciting topic in Fenian circles. There seems to be a general impression among the Brotherhood, that the sentence will not be carried out, and that the prisoner will be sent to jail for life. This anticipation has had the effect of materially modifying the feeling against the Canadian Government, which would otherwise exist. It is understood that a mass meeting will be held in this city, to call Colonel Lynch and his associates, and take steps to procure his release.

The case of Ell Bohen, a distiller doing business on Newtown, L. I., and Messrs. Roe & Shafter, distillers, at the corner of Franklin and Flatbush Avenue, whose places were seized by the Government on the charge of fraudulent manufacture of whisky, were to be tried in the United States Circuit Court, this morning, but the cases were settled by the payment of one thousand dollars by Mr. Bohen, and thirty-two thousand dollars by Messrs. Roe & Shafter.

The Antecedents of Col. Lynch.

LOUISVILLE, October 28.—On the authority of Col. Starr, commanding the late Fenian expedition now here, we state that the Colonel Lynch executed and now in jail in Toronto was a book-keeper in a mercantile house in this city, and was sent with the Fenian expedition by his employers. He had no rank in the Fenian organization, and did not belong to the expedition. He accompanied it merely as an adventurer to report to the employers. Col. Starr offered Lynch a commission which Lynch refused to accept.

From San Francisco—Mexican Matters Arrival of Treasure.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 27.—A letter from General Montegro, dated Acapulco, October 15th, informs the Imperial Consul here that the campaigns against the liberals in Guerrero was about to be opened vigorously.

The steamer Active, from Victoria has arrived, bringing $32,000 in treasure. Governor Kennedy and family were among the passengers.

Disastrous Results of the Frosts in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, GA., Oct. 28.—Accounts from the interior represent that the recents frosts have killed vegetation, and that there can be no more maturing cotton bolls.

Canadian News.

MONTREAL, C. W., October 27.—News that Lynch, the Fenian, who has been sentenced to death at Toronto, causes much discussion here. The Witness newspaper is not in favor of carrying out the sentence, as there was no evidence that he actually committed murder, his crime was purely political. Another barge of war material has arrived from England.

QUEBEC, October 27.—Lieut. Baine, from the Royal Artillery, died last night from injuries received at the late fire, while rendering assistance.

Twelve prosecutions were issued yesterday from the Recorder's Court for erecting wooden buildings in the burnt district.

The City Council has decided to erect a telegraph fire alarm throughout the city.

Snow fell last night; depth, on cinch.

Important Railroad Measures.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 25.—Important railroad measures have lately been consummated in Norfolk which will prove of vast advantage to the towns and railroad interests of south Virginia. General Mahone, accompanied by J. W. Robertson, of the Georgia Western and Atlantic Railroad Company, J. R. Branner, President of the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad, and others, have arrived in Norfolk on a tour of inspection of various roads between there and the Mississippi Valley. A satisfactory arrangement was made and a schedule of freights has been entered into which will give a through connection to trade and travel between New York and Memphis.

Brig Wrecked and Loss of Life.

SAVANNAH, October 28.—The brig Nora, from Savannah to Cardenas, with lumber, was wrecked and abandoned twenty-five miles from Cape Canaryvoor Light, on the 9th inst. Three colored seamen, a boy and one passenger exeaped on a raft and arrived at Jacksonville.

Base Ball at Richmond.

RICHMOND VA., October 27.—A game of Base Ball was played this afternoon between the National Club of Washington, and the Pastime club of this city, resulting in the defeat of the latter. Eight innings were played—National, 78; Pastime, 10.

Gold Dust Shipped from Colorado.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—A Herald's Leavenworth dispatch says: $25 millions of gold dust were shipped from Colorado during the week ending the 20th, which is an increase of 200 ounces over the shipments of the previous week.

Funeral of Hedrick—Grand Benefit for His Widow.

The remains of Henry Hedrick, the circumstances of whose murder were fully reported in previous issues of the Gazette, were buried yesterday from his late residence in Birmingham. The funeral was attended by a vast concourse of people, among whom were the members of the different musical bands in the two cities with their instruments. While the obsequies were in progress the air was made vocal by the soul mellow strains from an incnite number of brass instruments, united in one sad solemn dirge for the poor musician who has been hurried from the world through the reckless act of an unprincipled assassin.

In order to relieve the wife of the deceased, Manager Henderson (to the orchestra of whose Theatre Hedrick was attached) has arranged for a benefit, which will take place, which comes off on Wednesday afternoon. The programme will consist of Brougham's speciality of "A gentleman from Ireland," in which the celebrated Dan Rice will appear, especially for the occasion, and a grand musical mélange by an orchestra of seventy-five musicians, which will be made up of the following forces: Gilmore's Band, leader, Patrick Gilmore; Great Western Band, leader, B. Weiss; Washington Cornet Band, leader, W. Becher; Smith & George's Band, leader, Geo. George; Hodgeson's Band, leader, J. R. Hodgeson; Orchestra, leader, J. B. Hartel; and the Pittsburgh Theatre Orchestra, leader, Geo. Bart.

The above forces, it will be seen, in one hundred and fifty strong, and will consist of gems from the great masters, and in our judgment will be the chief beauty of the programme.

The entire receipts of the house will be given to Mrs. Hedrick, Mr. Henderson paying the expenses of the house out of his own private exchequer, while the performers and musicians generously kindly volunteer. Tickets of admission to all parts of the house fifty cents, to be had now at all the music and book stores, and at the box-office of the Theatre.

Allegheny County Teachers Association.

The monthly meeting of this efficient organization of teachers, which has been in successful operation for some seventeen years, was held last saturday in the Fourth Ward School House, Penn street.

Messrs. S. F. Patterson and I. H. Eaton discussed the question, "Are our courses of study and methods of teaching sufficiently practical?" Both gentlemen took the position that school education should exert a powerful influence in developing the future man. In our present

THE NEW ADMIN STRATION.

General GEARY may not unfairly be ranked as a new man in the politics of the State. He has never held office in it; at least none of prominence; and during the war was away, honorably engaged in the military employment of the country. He owes his nomination and election to the Governorship not at all to cliques and intriguants, but to his personal character and public services. The eyes of the loyal men of the State turned to him because he was not battered in politics, and because his conduct during the whole period of the war had inspired confidence and commanded respect. There were competitors in the field against him for the nomination, who, under ordinary circumstances, would have been formidable. Combinations were formed among politicians to secure the choice of one or another of these competitors. There were points of time at which these combinations promised to be all-powerful; but they came to naught, not by treachery, but simply because the popular current set strongly in favor of the General, and could not be overcome.

In the canvass that followed the enthusiasm awakened by General GEARY drew all factions and all interests in the Republican ranks heartily into his support. The issue and the man were both too great to admit of jealousies, heart-burnings and alienations. All divisions of the party having contributed equally, and with like enthusiasm to his election, have a common interest and pride in the success of his administration.

In these important particulars General GEARY occupies a vantage ground of singular felicity. He has it clearly within his power to cleanse the party, in large part, of old feuds which have distracted it; and this without doing injustice, or having injustice done, to any body, much less to men who are eminent for worth and work.

By changes in the Constitution, which we do not regard as fortunate, because not tending to a wholesome administration of the laws, the Governor has little patronage at his disposal. Such as he has, he will find fruitful of perplexities, rather than prolific of advantages. It will be to him not a help, but a hindrance. Whatever good he produces—whatever reputation he makes—will result from a wise and steady adherence to the cardinal principles and measures for the defence of which the Republican party is set. To this end, we advise Gen. Geary to call about him, in the few places to which he has the prerogative of nomination or appointment, men who are conspicuous for ability and fidelity; who are more intent on the predominence of fundamental ideas than the success of any clique; who are outside of factions because too great and true to be bound by them; and who co-operate with the Republican party, not for what they can make out of it in the way of pecuniary gains or official promotions, but because they hold its professed principles to be of vital consequence to the maintenance of equal liberty and impartial justice, and are in active sympathy with the main sentiments by which it is animated. In this way he will retain the position he now fills as the acknowledged leader of the party by which he was chosen, will do much to promote its unity and usefulness, and will prepare the way before it for new triumphs which shall yet more firmly consolidate its power, and make it potential for good throughout the boundaries of the republic.

THE GUILLOTIN.

After the October elections there were indications that the President would cease his attempts to coerce Congress into the adoption of his Policy. There was a pause in the removing of Federal officers-holders because they would not surrender their principles. It was reported, with general credence, that two members of the Cabinet, in view of the popular verdicts, had advised the President to revise his purposes, even to the extent of falling in with the Congressional Plan. Later it was stated the Secretary of the Treasury had declared he would make no more removals except for cause. All these evidences of abatement of hostilities on the part of the Executive have disappeared. Decapitations among the officials have been resumed, and other and stronger proofs are not wanting that the President is resolved still to pursue the path he marked out for himself, under Mr. SEWARD'S inspiration, soon after he reached the presidential chair.

What has wrought this change? Whoever has read and duly considered the import of certain telegrams from Maryland, has discovered the reason of it. By breaking down the legal barriers existing against rebel soldiers exercising the right of suffrage, the President hopes to gain two or three members of Congress, favorable to his views, in that State. The measures conceived and entered upon by the Governor are so clearly revolutionary, and involve such serious hazards of armed collisions as to force the conviction that a pledge of military aid had been obtained from the President before the initiative was taken. It is certainly to be hoped that the loyal men of Maryland will not take counsel of their impulses, but will act rigidly under the control of their judgments. It is better to suffer wrong than to precipitate an issue which may lead—no one can foretell whither. There are potent remedies for any injuries that may be inflicted on them. The courts and Congress are competent to undo any wrongs that may be done.

In New York the President and his friends hope to gain some members of Congress by the same criminal methods that were employed in this State in the counties of Luzerne and York. An immense number of naturalizations have been effected, and thousands more will be accomplished. The process is performed in such hurry and indecency as to awaken more than a suspicion that it is not done honestly. While the Registry Law furnishes some security against fraudulent voting, it does not absolutely exclude fraud, as was the expectation of those by whose efforts it was enacted. It puts ballot-box stuffers to additional labor; involves them in some greater risks; but it does not effectually stop frauds.

Whatever gains the President may hope to make by these expedients cannot give him and his Policy majorities in the new Houses. It may be assumed, therefore, that the President has decided, at all risks, "to fight it out on that line," no matter what Congress or the people may ordain. All the republicans in office, who refuse to sanction the presidential despotism, may as well lose their heads with what grace they can command. Their successors are ready for the honors and emoluments. What is transpiring shows that these successors are neither conservative republicans, nor war democrats, but democrats of the copperhead species; men who were heartily with the rebels in sympathies and convictions, throughout the war, and are with them now. In "swinging around the circle" the President has got entirely out-side the communion of loyal men, and finds none but the other sort ready to aid him in his schemes.

Hon. Samuel A. Purviance.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Among the names which have been presented for the United States Senatorship, there are, we are sure, none which would be so acceptable to the State at large, and none which would bring to the councils of the nation more sterling weight and worth, than the name of Samuel A. Purviance.

As a Representative from the 23d District for two terms, in the National Congress, he exhibited marked administrative ability, as well as unswerving patriotism to the country and devotion to the right.

As Governor Curtin's Attorney General he developed a character for energy and honesty which was but too little appreciated.

In a word, Hon. Samuel A. Purviance is just the man that Pennsylvania wants in this crisis—a man who would not Cowan-like betray his party nor sell his birthright for a mess of pottage. We do not propose to discuss, here, the relative claims of the prominent aspirants for election, among whom are John W. Forney, Simon Cameron and Andrew G. Curtin. Suffice it, they are eastern men, and we want a western man. We want a man, too, whose garments are unsullied—a man who would never prove recreant to his trust. In Samuel A. Purviance we have such a man—a man who has been tried and not found wanting.

In calling attention to Mr. P. we have done so without consulting him, and do not know that he desires to be a candidate. But, taking into consideration the claims of the west, and the importance of having a true and tried man to represent our State in the Senate of the United States, we have taken the liberty of thus presenting the name of Samuel A. Purviance.

TWENTY-THIRD DISTRICT.

STATE NEWS.

BROKE JAIL.—Robert Brown, confined in the jail of Lawrence county, charged with murder, escaped on Friday evening, the 19th inst. And at the same time Frank Gregg, also charged with murder. They escaped from the hall of the prison by sawing a staple in which there was a padlock, and also sawing of the clasp of a padlock that was on the door leading from the hall to the yard. The second door was locked, but by some means they turned the bolt, and got into the yard of the prison. They then tied two benches together with a quilt, which had been torn by them into strips, by which means they ascended the wall of the prison-yard—they descended the wall by means of a rope. How they procured the saw and rope is a mystery. Brown is about twenty-eight years old, six feet high, and proportioned—fair skin, light hair and blue-eyes—has a scar on his shoulder from a pistol shot wound. Gregg is about five feet eight inches high—heavy built and slightly stoop shouldered. A reward of three hundred dollars is offered for their arrest and detention until delivered to the sheriff of this county; or $150 for either.—Lawrence Journal.

DEATH OF TWO OLD CITIZENS.—We have this week to record the death of two of the oldest citizens of Jefferson county, both of whom were well known, to nearly every person in our county, and few leave so favorable a record behind them.

Mr. John Matson, Sr., died at his residence in Rose township, on Monday morning last, aged about one hundred years. He had resided for the greater part of a century in this county, and leaves a large family—some ten children—besides numerous other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Mr. James Corbett died at the residence of K. L. Blood, Esq., this morning, aged about 73 years. Mr. Corbett leaves three children, W. W. Corbett, Mrs. W. P. Jenks and Mrs. K. L. Blood, besides many friends, to mourn his loss.

Thus have two of our oldest citizens been gathered home, after a long life of usefulness.—Ib.

A GRAND IMPOSTOR.—An individual calling himself Samuel Saunders, has been traveling extensively in this county for the ostensible purpose of raising money to erect a State Monument to the heroes who fell at Gettysburg. The scoundrel succeeded in getting a large sum of money from our citizens. He was suspicioned very sharply of being a swindler in St. Clair township, and was arrested, but succeeded in making his escape from an upper story of the residence of Gideon D. Tost, Esq., on Tuesday night, the 16th inst., by fastening a blanket and letting himself down. He was dressed in a black cloth suit, is supposed to be five feet eight inches in height, with heavy black moustache and whiskers. It is supposed that he has succeeded in collecting several thousand dollars.—Bedford Inquirer.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.—It has been the desire of many citizens of our county, for some time, that a suitable monument be erected to the memory of the fallen heroes of the late war, and for the purpose of furthering this good work an Association has been organized, officers elected, and all the necessary preliminaries attended to that will expedite the completion of a structure that will reflect credit upon the patriotism and liberality of the people of Jefferson county.—Brookville Republican.

SUDDEN DEATH.—It is with regret that we announce the sudden death of Mr. A. Johnston Watson, of Neshannock township, on Tuesday evening last. He was in the orchard picking apples from a tree—he descended from a tree, and stated to the person with him that his back pained him, soon after which he fell over and expired in a few minutes. Mr. Watson was one of our most respectable citizens, and his death is much to be regretted. He leaves a large connection and many personal friends to mourn his death.—Ib.

THE the publication of the Alleghenian has been discontinued by its editor, the Hon. A. A. Barker.

ACCORDING to the Jonesboro (Tenn.) Flag, the conservatives have a way of promoting the freedom of the press which we do not fancy. It says:

"Another daring attempt was made to destroy the Flag office by fire on Friday night last, but was foiled by the fire being discovered through a mere accident, in time to extinguish it. Had those vile, incendiary wretches effected their base design, three boys (apprentices) would have perished in the flames. Who can contemplate so damnable a deed without a shudder! But, as we said before, they are known, and will finally receive their just compensation of reward—as will also those who countenance and aid them. We have retreated for once with our office, behind more impregnable fortifications, and mean to fight the cowardly scoundrels out on this line if it takes ten years! They can no more prevent us from publishing a loyal paper in Jonesboro than stop the sun, moon and stars from revolving around their orbits. The good work must and shall go on, traitors, incendiaries and assassins to the contrary notwithstanding."

TRADE ON THE GREAT LAKES.—Sixty years ago, says the Troy (N. Y.) Whig, speaking of the great western lakes, there was scarcely a craft on these waters larger than an Indian canoe. Now the tonnage of side-wheel steamers alone is 100,000 tons. In 1841 the gross amount of the lake trade, independent of the property constantly changing hands, cost of vessels and profits of passenger trade, amounted to 65,000,000. In 1851 it had increased to $300,000,000, and in 1861 to $550,000,000. At the present rate of increase the lake commerce af 1871 will amounts to the enormous sum of 1,000,000,000. In 1859 the northwestern lakes were navigated by 1,600 vessels, whose aggregate burthen was 400,000 tons. They were manned by over 13,000 seamen, navigating over 5,600 miles of lake and river coast, and transporting over $600,000,000 of exports and imports.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—A dry-goods merchant in Vermont advertises as follows: "The female who carried off a pair of black kid gloves from our store took also, by mistake, doubtless, half of another pair. She is respectfully requested to return the odd glove or to come to our store and get the one left, as a single glove, like a single individual, is poor stock until mated."

An Artificial Ocean—A Huge Aquarium—Pits, Basins and Caves.

A writer in All the Yeary Round says: "As the steamer from Folkestone to Boulogne nears the chalky outline of the French coast, the traveler can not well fail to notice a strange, craggy, sharp pointed looking affair, brown in hue, and unlike any thing he is familiar with—except in icebergs, as represented in a traveling panorama, supposing the ice to have been touched over with red ochre. Appealing to the captain, or the through railway guard, the said traveler will be informed it is the new aquarium adjoining the Establishment des Bains de Mer.

"The exterior of this monster aquarium is by no means pleasing to the eye, neither did it all impress the visitor who pens these notes, on being entered. We gaze into sundry pits; some had water in them; from others the tide had gone out, and the few living things which were there at the ebb-like "Barkis," had gone out with it.

"A few flabby shore crabs, some winkles and pectens gasping for air and water, a sea urchin or two, their jackets of lime and membrane so dry that their spines and suckers were fixtures like themselves, several dead and dying fish—there made up the sum total of the treasures from the deep. It seemed a chaos of pits, holes and indescribable openings. There were legions of tittle pipes which appeared to have no definite direction, leading to every place and from every place, crossing and recrossing until the eye failed to take in any thing but an inexplicable confusion of holes and lines of rope. It suggested the idea of its being the work of beavers and muskrats, if one could have imagined them equal to making draining pipes and heaping uptums of concrete. In this state of baffled hope a Frenchman beckoned the visitor to follow him, and shook his head at all he had been contemplating. We crossed several deep pits on narrow planks, threaded our way past a pile of limey looking rocks, down over a sloating kind of place where water was dropping from a stream above, that tumbled into a chasm and disappeared, and after winding along a damp, intricate, labyrinth-like passage, we came suddenly into an immense cavern. The cavern is, at a rough guess, about sixty feet long, and not quite so wide. The center is supported on massive pillars made to resemble stalactites, while through the arched and gloomy roof light steals in mysteriously.

"Real as the cave looks, still much more strongly is the idea of being really under the sea brought home to one when along the sides and fronting the entrance are veritably, and not metaphorically, a number of small seas; cavern-like openings are skillfully made in the sides of the vault, the fronts of which are of glass, let into the irregularities of the concrete; the interiors of these holes are of all shapes, and are hollowed out into quaint dens and lurking places for sea-fish to skulk and hide in; only a few of them are as yet completed, but in those that are filled with sea water the light is so artfully and cleverly admitted that one can see no end to the space. It is like gazing into an illimitable extent of water—a sea, looked up through, instead of down into.

"The artist by whom this clever production has been originated is M. Edouard Belencourt, and under his clever and artistic management it is rapidly growing toward completion. Report whispers that this same artist is to be commissioned to erect another monster aquarium for the coming Paris exhibition. There is not a question as to this aquarium being at present the largest in the world, and it is not too much to say in praise of our neighbors on the other side of the channel, that they will confer a benefit on the world if the managers of these little oceans exemplify the art bearing directly on the question of supplying food at a cheap rate for the poor, stands second to none."

PITTSBURGH, MAY 20th, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:

GENTLEMEN—During a visit to the West last fall, I contracted chill and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health, having almost completely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. As I was about to leave, a friend recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but having strongly opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterward yielded my prejudices, and after taking the medicine for a few days, my appetite returned, and with it, I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered more than any thing else) is better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and, in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial of my appreciation of your valuable preparation in order that others may avail themselves of its virtues, which I feel positive, will prove to me from enjoying it for so long a period. I may also add, that my physician, after seeing the beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended it to his patients generally.

Yours, very respectfully,

E. BOURNE,

PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.
GURNER & CO.,
No. 80 Cedar St., New York,
Offer for sale these valuable Wines, which are gaining public favor with astonishing rapidity, and whose unprecedented and unrivaled popularity is not without merit. They have come to be favorably tested to give them the preference over all others, as a purifier of blood; they excel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates we have volunteered have been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as private families, all of which are proof conclusive that these Wines are a special to all cases for which they are recommended.
The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State suitable for sale:
WHITE, or HOCK WINE—"A light straw color, very delicate and fine flavored.
CLARET—A superior wine for table use.
ANGELICA—A rich and nutritive cordial.
PORT—Resembles the best Oporto, and is many years old in the wines of Lisbon.
GRAPE BRANDY—The pure distillation of our wines.
WINE BITTERS—A very agreeable tonic and a safe remedy for the diseases.
This is one of the most valuable combinations of a useful and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Its virtues are fast being made known throughout the north during the last four years, and we have never introduced it but it gave a wholesome addition to the table of every family where the bachelor's sideboard.
Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast, fond of cigars, sedentary habits of body, and whose systems are generally deranged, all mothers wearing children and suffering from general debility; clergymen, lawyers, merchants and students, of nervous constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change their water; and all who live in malarious districts and are subject to chills and fever and indigestion. We would simply call attention to the fact that this is one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.
It was used very extensively in 1854, with such general satisfaction that it offering it to the public now we deem it sufficient to say that we have in many cases that we have been received, inciting to the very strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is that we are ready to refer to any one desiring to furnish an article PURE AND UNADULTERATED.
Testimonials have been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect, one little girl in particular, with pains in her head, and who was thought by her parents to be consumptive, whom no medicine could have been exhausted, is now entirely restored. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

WAIT FOR THE BEST!
Woman's Work in the Civil War;
BY L. P. BROCKETT, M. D.,
AND
Mrs. MARY C. VAUGHAN.
This work, prepared under the sanction and approval of the United States Sanitary Commission, the Western Sanitary Commission, and the Christian Commission, is by far the best, and will obtain the largest sale in January next. Its preparation was commenced more than three years ago, and has since been prosecuted with care and diligence. No effort or expense has been spared to make it authentic, complete and interesting. All material has been furnished by the families or friends of the subjects. It will contain sketches of one hundred and seventy-five ladies, during the war, who labored in behalf of the soldiers, Refugees and Freedmen, with abundant incidents of their work, and brief notices of about four hundred others, while a just tribute will be paid to the thousands of nameless heroines, who bravely ever danger and privation, or quietly toiled and sacrificed time, health and many of them life, to give aid and relief to our suffering soldiers.
Some of the ablest pens in the nation have been employed in the preparation of the sketches, and the introduction is written by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, and divine, himself actively engaged during the war in philanthropic labors.
The work will contain about 600 pages, small quarto, and be embellished with numerous steel portraits, by the best engravers in the country from photographs, or paintings of the subjects.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

National Wool Growers Meeting.

The second annual meeting of the National Wool Grower's Association, will be held in the city of Cleveland, Ohio, Wednesday the 14th of November next, at ten o'clock p. m.

This will be the most important meeting held in the country for years, whether viewed from a political economist, agriculturalist, financial, or perhaps non party political stand point.

Wool growing being a branch of agriculture, and necessary to successful agriculture, every agriculturist in the country is immediately interested in its prosperity.

Hence the meeting will represent the planter, the agriculturalist, and to a very considerable extent, the whole industrial interest of the country, regardless of imaginary zones, geographically or otherwise, and also a vast majority of the electors of North America. As also much the largest part of the invested capitals of the whole country.

At page 601, department of agriculture in 1864, it is shown that the capital of the agriculturalists in 1864 was $5,706,141,998; the capital of manufacture and commerce, $4,944,596,000; the investment of agriculture over manufacture and commerce, $761,375,997. It will be observed that this does not include California or the late eleven rebelling states, including however, Nebraska Territory. At page 588, same report, it is shown that in the same state and territory, there were 28,647,267 head of sheep, valued at $154,907,496. The department of agriculture, in 1866, shows that there were in California in 1860, 1,000,132 head of sheep, if they be valued at five dollars per head, their worth is $5,005,660. The quarterly report of the department of agriculture for September 1866, shows there were in the eleven Southern states, not included in the above, in 1860, was 4,899,277 head of sheep, and in 1866 but 4,000,250. Decrease in the six years in eleven Southern states, 900,041; valuing the 4,000,736 head at five dollars each, is $20,045,680.

Thus showing there are not less than 33,750,137 head of sheep sheared in the United States now; in not less than $180,351,806, and that there are 950,041 less sheep in the eleven Southern States than in 1860. This, we think, is certainly not an over estimate of the number and value of sheep owned in our country. Florida has but 9,031 head of sheep; Louisiana but 90,626, none of the other Southern States have less than 282,105. Texas has the greatest number, say 904,025 head; Tennessee 500,260. It will be observed that there is no branch or part of agriculture so universal in its applicability to the whole extent of our country as sheep husbandry, and no branch so universally adopted throughout the United States. Reference to the authority quoted will fully bear us out in this assertion. Yet it is shown at page 603, Report 1864, that there was imported in 1864 into New York City alone 56,874,128 pounds of foreign wool, and but 97,298,956 pounds furnished by the loyal States of 158,174,093 pounds consumed by the loyal States in 1864.

If the wool manufacturers of the country be represented at the meeting—and we know of no reason why they should not—it must be conceded whether as to numbers or of wealth there has never been held on this continent a more important representative meeting.

The wool and woolen tariff bill having been postponed by the Senate of the United States till next December, and the heretofore almost entire neglect by our law makers of (if not against) the American agriculturalist. The time has certainly arrived calling imperatively on the industrial inhabitants of our country to arise and assert their manhood and declare (and keep their promise) that they will no longer be hewers of wood and drawers of water to other less important occupations or politicians. GLENN & BROTHER.
NORRISTOWN, Allegheny Co., Pa., Oct. 27, 1866.

Opening of a New Line of Telegraph.

The business community, particularly those interested in the oil trade, will be pleased to learn that the Merchant's National Telegraph Line, has been thrown open for the transaction of public business. This highly important connecting link between Pittsburgh, Oil City and the intermediate points of oil importance, can not be over estimated by our citizens, since it places us in direct communication with places where, hitherto, business had to be entirely entrusted to the slow operation of the mails. The main offices of the company are located here, and at Franklin and Oil City, and although the line takes in all the towns and villages of importance between these points, and will eventually extend to the various settlements and wells in the oil region. We heartily congratulate the company, which D. M. Gregston, Esq., is President, and J. H. Miller, Esq., Secretary, upon the completion and opening of the line. The office is for the present at the corner of Penn and Duquesne Way, where all business will be received and attended to from this date.

Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

On Saturday morning Court met at nine o'clock. Present, a full bench, with exception of Judge Strong. The following arguments were heard.

Schmertz & Bleakley vs. Dwyer; C. P. Submitted by Kerr & McCullough and Kirkpatrick & Metzger, for plaintiff in error, and Hamilton & Acheson, contra.

Bissell vs. Duck Creek Oil Company, C. P., and Spang, vs. same; C. P. Argued together by C. W. Robb for plaintiffs in error, and Schoyer, contra.

Robinson vs. School Directors of Baldwin township; D. C. Submitted. Woods for plaintiff in error, and Rege and Negley contra.

Court then adjourned until ten o'clock this morning, when the list for Westmoreland, Armstrong, Indiana and Cambria counties will be taken up.

Female Combatants.

Bridget Earley occupies a tenement in Temperanceville in close proximity to the humble home of Isabella Wassing. Notwithstanding this fact the good feeling usual among neighbors does not exist between the parties mentioned, and yesterday they determined to end their bickerings by a resort to a physical combat. For two grand hours the battle raged with terrible fury amid the yells of the combatants, who, with frenzy in their eyes and desperation in their hearts, contested for the superiority. Isabella, being gifted with stronger respitory powers than her adversary at length succeeded in knocking the redoubtable Bridget into a head-puddle which had just been vacated by a couple of the porcine tribe, and thus became the victor. With a thirst for revenge Bridget appeared before Alderman Strain and made oath against Isabella and her husband James for assault and battery. The accused were arrested and held to bail for a hearing.

Committed.

Martin Healey an interesting specimen of the rustic Celt, appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday and made oath against Annette Jenkins, for surety of the peace.

Martin alleges that Annetti is in the habit of insulting him whenever she happens to meet him and on Saturday morning last she took one step further in her war of aggression and called the blameless Martin all sorts of hard names, winding up her string of adjectives by declaring she would murder him if ever a fitting opportunity offered for the consumation of this terrible deed.

Annette was arrested and committed to jail in default of $300 bail. When the sanguinary female was being taken out of the magistrates office, Healey exclaimed with a nervousness that showed how real were his sentiments, "The Lord be praised, I'm rid of you."

For the sake of a fellow being's peace it is to be hoped that Margaret will not soon escape from bondage.

Fatal Accident.

On Thursday, while some laborers were engaged in making a heavy excavation on the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, in the rear of the Waterson House, on the Allegheny river, a heavy mass of earth became detached from the hill above, and falling with tremendous force, crushed one of the workmen, Mr. Robert Mateer, beneath it. He was taken out in a few minutes, but was so badly injured that he only lived an hour. He leaves a wife residing at New Athens. Mr. Mateer was a sober, industrious citizen, and his loss will prove a terrible blow to his invalid wife. The people residing in the vicinity of the accident contributed very liberally toward the support of his wife, and deserve praise for their unsolicited kindness.

Unprovoked Assault.—Thomas Powell, a deck-hand on the steamer Deleware, entered and made before Alderman Lynch, on Saturday, against the engineer of the steamer mentioned, for perpetrating an unprovoked assault, and battery upon him. Powell states that while he was quietly eating his breakfast in the engine room, the accused came up behind him and kicking him in the back of the head, inflicting a ugly gash in the scalp. A warrant was placed in the hands of officer Conners, for the arrest of the defendant, but owing he could effect the object of his mission, the boat left for St. Louis, and for the time being the accused has escaped.

Found Dead.—A man named George L. Glenn, of Butler, was found in a dying condition near Loudon, on the roadside, last Saturday morning. When first found he was unable to speak and died about twelve o'clock. His body was removed to Loudon, whereupon William Vincent, Esq., summoned a coroner's jury who, after investigating the case, rendered the usual verdict. The deceased left Butler some days before his death and came to Mercer, stopping at Pine Grove one or two days, and was again returning to Butler when he died. It seems that intemperance was the indirect, if not the direct cause of his death.

Persevering Thieves.—The Connellsville Record says: Some enterprising thieves went through S. T. Barackman's grocery store, in Linesville, gaining entrance by picking the lock, on Sunday night, carrying off a couple of razors, a bottle of wine, a box of cigars and cartridges, but finding no other goods in the depot building was also entered, but the thieves failed to find anything of value. The locks of nearly every establishment in the village were pried, but without success, except in the instances mentioned.

Ferocious Dog.—Jane Thompson was before Justice Lippert, Saturday, charged with keeping and maintaining a ferocious dog, on oath of Mary Luther. The latter stated in her deposition that the canine alluded to jumped on her daughter and bit her severely on the neck and shoulder, lacerating the flesh in a terrible manner. The owner of the dog gave bail for trial and was released.

Recovering.—The Beaver Local says: The son of Mr. C. Vaelton, of Industry township, reported in these columns a few weeks ago, as having received severe if not fatal injuries by a fall from a tree is recovering.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

NEW YORK, October 27.—The news of the conviction and sentence to death of Lynch, the Fenian, created the greatest excitement among the Irish citizens of New York. The Common Council of this city met and passed resolutions requesting the Canadian authorities to pardon the prisoner, and requesting the President to use all efforts to obtain the same.

The Tammany Hall Democracy also held a meeting and passed resolutions of a less pacific character, denouncing British justice and calling for vengeance on the Canadians.

The receipts from customs at the following named ports, from the 13th to the 20th inst., were as follows: New York, $2,030,081; Boston, $385,021; Philadelphia, $171,500; Baltimore, $102,534. Total, $2,702,327. The receipts at New Orleans, from the 6th to the 13th inst., amounted to $170,275.

A Times' Washington special says: Under the bounty act of July 28, 1866, the mother and father of deceased soldiers, provided there has been no abandonment on either side, are jointly entitled to receive payment of the bounty, the widow having first obtained before the act, and there being no minor children, and where the heirs of a deceased soldier claimed the bounty provided by the act of July 28th, 1866.

It is decided that if the soldier died before the passage of the act from causes other than wounds or disease contracted in the service, or if he died after the passage of the law from any cause, the heirs would not be entitled to the bounty, but if he died prior to to its passage from wounds or disease contracted in the service, the bounty descends to the heirs in the order and on the conditions named in the law. This case is precisely paralleled to that of the soldier to whom bounty is granted by the law of March 3d, 1865, providing for two years service, when discharged for wounds received in battle, and no provision was made for the descent of the bounty if the soldier died without receiving it and it was held to be personal to the beneficiary, and that it did not descend. Congress has sanctioned this construction, and passed an elaborate section on March 3d, 1865, providing for the descent in a prescribed order of inheritance, thus by implication, asserting that it could not descend without express provision of the law.

From New Orleans.

NEW YORK, October 27.—A Tribune New Orleans special says: Judge Cooley, who presided at a recent term of the Circuit Court at Alexandria, has returned to this city and represents the parish of Rapid as being in a state of anarchy.

A Herald New Orleans special says: I am semi-officially informed that Ortega and staff, now here, will not be permitted to enter Mexico, and perhaps will be arrested here.

The military commander is absent for a few days, but there is unusual stir at headquarters. Something is on the tapis.

NEW YORK, October 27.—The Tribune's Chicago special says: Evidences of wide spread troubles on the Indian frontier have accumulated more rapidly than usual within the past few days. A general war is really imminent. General Sherman has ceased to discredit alarming reports, and is taking every means to throw troops into imperilled districts. Fifteen thousand Indian warriors are expected by the latest advices to be actually on the war path.

Murdered by Mormons.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Herald's Fort Leavenworth dispatch says: Dr. Robinson, of Utah and Superintendent of the only Christian Sabbath school in Salt Lake City, was murdered by the Mormons on Oct. 24th. Gen. Conner, formerly commanding in Utah, telegraphs that the Gentiles of that city are panic stricken, and alludes to the Rev. Dr. Norman M'Leod not to return there.

Charged with Forgery.

NEW YORK, October 27.—Otto Arnoux, a clerk at the Republican Naturalization office, No. 6 Centre street, and Philip Milling and Henry Smith were arrested yesterday, charged with forging the name of Judge Morrel, of the Supreme Court, to naturalization certificates.—The accused were committed to jail in default of $1,000 bail to answer.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, October 27, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 146; 1881's, 113¾; 5-20's, old, 114¾; do new, 111; 10-40s, 90¾; 7-30s, 1st series, 106⅝; second and third, 106¾. Michigan Southern R. R., 92¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, ——; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 109½; Erie R. R., 84¾; Union Telegraph Company, 51¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 109½; Chicago & North Western, 57¼; do preferred, 79¾.

The gold market, it will be noticed, is weaker. A great effort has been made to turn to some account the Baltimore troubles, but thus far with but little success. There was a strong effort made on Friday to put gold up to 150, and it will perhaps be tried again before the first of November interest comes on the market. Speculators for a rise have now but three working days before them, though it is possible they may carry the contest into November, should the disbursements prove slow. It is computed that during the first three days fully $12,000,000 will be paid off. This cannot fail to weaken gold materially, unless the combination is much stronger than we suppose it to be.

Governments are quiet and a shade lower save in new Five Twenty and the 1st series of Seven Thirties, both of which have advanced. Railway stocks closed weaker, on an appearance of stringency in the money market—this, however, can be but temporary. The large disbursements for November interest will come into the market at once for Governments or Railways.

We can report nothing new in our local market. The week closes upon firmer rates for discounts, and more readiness to sell the weaker class of stocks. Bank shares without much change. Sales to-day of M. & M. National at 65. People's in demand at 111. Exchange National wanted at 65½. First National at 170. Commerce at 107. Columbia oil has been remarkably quiet all week. We have not had a sale to report for three days—held at 17, 16 bid. 2,75 bid for small lots of Marine oil, stock offered at 3. Triumph held at 1, ¾ bid.

The commissioner of the sinking fund of the Commonwealth announce that sealed proposals will be received until November 15th for the sale of one million dollars of the five per cent. and one million dollars of the six per cent loans of the State.

—Hon. C. V. Culver, now confined in jail at Franklin, desires to avail himself of his Congressional privilege, and will meet his trial in November, despite civil processes innumerable, several indictments charging him with false pretences and embezzlement are pending, and to be called up next month at Harrisburg. Last week the house and furniture of the gentleman were sold at the instance of his creditors.

—The New York Tribune says that a bank of large capital in that city has recently sold a portion of its privilege to issue circulation to a small bank for a compensation, and that the Comptroller of the Currency has ratified the transaction. This may be in accordance with the spirit of the National Banking Law, but to prudent people it looks like opening the door to a good deal of "wild cat" circulation.

—The cable continues to report an active Europe demand for United States Five Twenties, the latest quotation thence being relatively one to one and a quarter of one per cent higher than the latest figures made in London before the detachment of the November coupon, representing one per cent in value. It is believed this further considerable export purchases of these bonds will be made on the collection by local agents of the coin interest claims of foreign bondholders, which interest will doubtless be very generally reinvested in the coin-bearing securities of our Government. Our political agitations do not seem to disturb the confidence of foreign purchases of our public funds, judging by the steady outflow of our national bonds in response to foreign investment orders.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The operations in most of the produce markets have been moderately active during the past week, though there is an abundance of room for improvement. There has been a perceptible increase in the receipts of Flour and Grain, and, indeed, produce generally, but, notwithstanding there is no special excitement, the demand seems to keep pace with the supply, and, generally speaking, values are fully sustained.

GRAIN—Is dull and neglected, though firm, at $2,60 to $2,65 for No. 1 Spring. Oats quiet and unchanged; may be quoted at 50, on track and wharf, and 55 to 55, in store. Prime Shelled Corn is quoted at $1 to $1,05. Barley is less active but unchanged—$1,10 to $1,15 for No. 2 Spring, and $1,20 for prime No. 1. Last sale of Rye at $1,20.

FLOUR—Is dull and neglected, though firm, at $2,60 to $2,65 for No. 1 Spring. Oats quiet and unchanged; may be quoted at 50, on track and wharf, and 55 to 55, in store. Prime Shelled Corn is quoted at $1 to $1,05. Barley is less active but unchanged—$1,10 to $1,15 for No. 2 Spring, and $1,20 for prime No. 1. Last sale of Rye at $1,20.

FLOUR—Is firm, with a continued fair local demand, and prices are well sustained—in fact, another advance is probable. We now quote at $10,25 to 12,75 for fair to choice brands of spring Wheat; and $13,25 to 15,75 for Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is selling at $7,25, and Buckwheat is quoted at $5,00 per cwt—in store.

PROVISIONS—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Bacon, and prices are nominal. We quote at 17 for Shoulders; 18 for Ribbed Sides; and 20c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 17½ to 18, and Mess Pork at $34. Stock of all kinds pretty well reduced.

APPLES—The supply is considerably in excess of the demand, and the market is dull with a drooping tendency. We quote in a retail way at 2½ to $3¼ per bbl, for fair to choice.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged. Prime Roll is in fair demand at 32 to 35, but for common packed, as there is no margin for shipment, the demand is very light.

CRANBERRIES—There is a steady demand at previous quotations—$15 per bbl. for common, and $20 for cultivated.

POTATOES—There is little or no demand for Peach Blows, and we quote them dull at $2,50 per bbl. Sweet Potatoes quoted steady at $4,50 to $5.

SEEDS—There is a good demand for Flaxseed at $3, while Timothy and Clover are dull and unchanged.

CHEESE—Is dull and in good supply but unchanged—17 for Western Reserve; 18 for Hamburg; and 20 to 22 for Goshen.

EGGS—Firm, and in demand; fresh packed selling on arrival at 30.

ONIONS—Steady, with regular sales in store at $2,50 to $2,75 per bbl.

HAY—Is quoted at $20 to $25 per ton, as to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

CRUDE—The market for Crude was more active to-day than any preceding day during the week, but prices are no better; in fact, the tendency is still downward. The increased activity, therefore, cannot be attributed to any improvement in the demand, but solely to the fact that holders were more anxious to realize, and some of them to grant this point, submitted to concessions. Sale of 100 barrels, on the spot, at 12, 50, to be newly delivered next month and the 15th of November, at 12,85 bbls (nice gravity) at 12¾ and 2000 and 2600, both to arrive, on private terms. Quotations may be fairly given at 11½ to 12, bbls returned, and 16¾ to 17, bbls includ d, and, for the present, these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. Advices from Oil City report a slight advance, but we are unable to assign any cause for it.

REFINED—The transactions in bonded oil were unusually large in the aggregate to-day reaching several thousand barrels, but like Crude, there is no improvement to note in prices. Indeed, if anything, the rates are a shade lower, and, as yet, the "bottom" does not appear to have been reached. We continue to quote at 29½ to 31, free on board cars here, and 36½ to 37, delivered in Philadelphia. Sales of

1000 bbls November—Philadelphia 37
500 do December—Philadelphia 37
800 do November—Philadelphia 37
500 do November—Philadelphia 37½
500 do Immediate—Philadelphia 37½
1000 do December—Philadelphia 37½
500 do November—on cars here 30½
500 do December—on cars here 30½
250 do light straw to white—Philadelphia 34½

For free oil, there seems to be no demand whatever, except in a retail way, and we quote nominally at 50 to 51.

RESIDUUM—The demand for this commodity continues very much restricted, in fact it seems to have fallen off almost entirely; we can report a sale—the only one reported during the week—of 50 bbls at 42,50.

ARRIVALS—Continue very light and the indications for an improvement are by no means encouraging—140 bbls for Strickler & Co. and 35 for W. P. Logan—total receipts at wharf during the week, 1590.

Total receipts for the week	2,794
Total receipts last week	4,315
Total receipts since Jan. 1	791,347

NEW YORK, October 26.—Beef Cattle—There were yarded at Bergen to-day 2800 head. The market is slow but improving. Up to Thursday prices had declined le, but recovered to the extent of ½c since. MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Money a shade firmer and more active, at 5 per cent. for call loans. Sterling quiet at 109@109¾. Gold is lower, opening at 146¾, advancing to 146¾, declining to 145¾, and closing at 146¾. The total export of specie to-day amounted to $367,522. Governments more active.

The Post's money article says: Gold is easier for delivery, and the selling price has fallen to 145¾, recovering to 146. The loan market is rather more firm, and banks and capitalists have less difficulty in finding employment for their surplus funds. It is estimated that the drain of currency to the west is to the extent of one million of dollars a day. The discount demands; increasing and good bills pass at 5@6. There is, however, too large a proposition of six month papers afloat, and lenders do not discriminate against it as rigidly as formerly. The recent failures at Troy, and consequent stoppage of a Commission House in this city, have had a salutary influence; though there is still much less caution than is desirable. The stock market is irregular and rather firm. Governments are fairly active; sixes of 1881 being very much in demand; 5-20s of 1862 are lower, but those of 1864 and 65 are strong, especially those last named; 7-30s are most inquired for, first issue being the chief favorites of the day. After call board, the quotations were: New York Central, 115¾; Erie, 86½; Hudson, 125½; Reading, 98¾; Michigan Southern, 98¾; Illinois Central, 124½; Pittsburgh, 92; Northwestern, 57¾; Northwestern preferred, 80¾; Toledo 119¾; Rock Island, 109¾; Fort Wayne, 109; O. & M. certificates, 29¾.

LATEST.

There was considerable shifting of loans this morning, which caused a more active demand for money, and 5 per cent. was freely paid for call loans. The market was easier towards noon, and large balances could be had at 4 per cent. There is a closer scrutiny of paper in the discount market in consequence of the recent failures. Prime notes are done at 6@7 per cent. The bank statement on Monday will be much more favorable than for some weeks past. Loans will show a decrease of about $5,000,000, deposits $2,000,000, and legal tenders $900,000. The specie will increase about $500,000. There is currency going west at present, and very little to the south. Everything favors a continuance of ease in money. The gold market closed up firmly at 146¾@146¾. The Government has only sold to the extent of their remittance abroad to pay diplomatic expenses. There was a fair demand for sterling after the closing of the mail, and considerable business was done at 109¾@109¾. Government securities were quiet and steady this afternoon, yesterday's quotations ruling: 6's of '81, 113¾@114; 5-20s regular '62, 106@106¾; 5-20 coupons of '62, 114¾@114¾; 5-20 coupons of '64, 110¾@111; 5-20 coupons of '65, January and July, 106¾@106¾; 10-40s registered, 99¾@100; do coupons, 99¾@1. At the close of the day New York Central fell off to 117¾, but soon recovered to 118. Reading weakened but the market for a time, but it was all firmer afterwards. Rock Island is moving upwards and sellers' options are freely taken; Northwestern preferred is strong and in demand. The following were the closing prices at 4:30 p. m.: Ohio Certificates, 33¾@33½; Canton, 54¾@55; Boston Water Power, 31¾@32; Cumberland, old, 46½@46¾; Western Union Telegraph, 51¾; New York Central, 118¾@118½; Erie, 84@84¾; Hudson, 126@127; Reading, 113¾@113¾; Michigan Southern, 98@98¾; Illinois Central, 126¾@127; Pittsburgh, 92@92¾; Toledo, 114¾; Northwestern preferred, 80¾@80¾; Ft. Wayne, 108¾@109.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 27.—The Dry Goods trade has been very dull, unsettled and irregular for the past few days—less possible, than during the first three days of the week. The Wool market is still so stagnant that there are no sufficient sales among the jobbers to make market reporting to express it, and the glutted state of the Woolen goo.s market does not promise any improvement for the present. The immediate result of this state of things is that with light stocks of most kinds of Cotton goods, holders are quietly waiting the development of the next few days as patiently as could be expected. Jobbers' prices of Brown Sheetings: Atlantic A, 23½; Howard A, 20; Grant Falls 8, 19. RIVER NEWS.

The river remains about stationary at this point, with something like twenty-two or twenty-three inches reported at Glass House. The hopes entertained on Friday and Saturday that we were about to have a "wet-spell" of weather have again been blasted, for the present at least, and it must be confessed that steamboat matters look decidedly blue.

The Argosy is the only arrival we have to report during the past two days. She succeeded in getting over Glass House yesterday after considerable difficulty. The Silver Lake and Wabanita have succeeded in reaching the foot of Glass House, but, as yet, have been unable to get over.

The Great Republic, Capt. Donaldson's mammoth steamer, will be ready to launch as soon as there is water sufficient for that purpose.

As will be seen by card, the Kate Robinson is announced for St. Louis on the first rise. She has been overhauled and repaired, and is in tip-top condition for business.

The Silver Cloud and Columbia were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday. We clip the following items from the Commercial, of "aturday:

Henry Robinson and Daniel Dunseth went out pilots of the Atlanta, for New Orleans.....

The old United States gunboat Essex, arrived from below a few days since, and lies at the upper landing. The old triumphant warrior is to be dismantled.....Capt. A. C. McCarty, late clerk of the Messenger, yesterday, purchased the commanding interest in the Naugatuck, at the sale of $25,000 for the entire boat. Capt. McCarty leaves for Pittsburgh this evening by railroad.

The following boats were in port at Cincinnati on Friday last: Armadillo, Rose Hamilton, Dora, J. H. Groesbeck, New York, C. D. Palmer, Maggie Hays, Abeona, St. Cloud, Leonidas, Minneola, Golden Eagle, Lorena, Argonaut No. 2, Silver Cloud No. 2, Spray, Atlanta, Naugatuck, Clifton, Cottage No. 2, Silver Spray, Argosy.

The Spray left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday, and the Silver Cloud and Columbia were loading there the same day for this port. The Importer was advertised to leave Memphis for Pittsburgh on Monday, and the Peerless and Golden Eagle were laid up at that port. The Gordon lays up to take out her tubulars. The Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday, says:

Henry Fitzsimmons, connected with the house of James Cullen & Co., during the past fifteen years, died suddenly of cholera yesterday morning, after an illness of ten hours. He was well known in river circles, and was an honest, upright and faithful man. He leaves a widow and two children to mourn his loss.

ACCIDENT TO THE GUIDON.—This steamer was so unfortunate as to pick up a snag near Red Ford, in the Arkansas River, says the Memphis Bulletin of Tuesday, which knocked a hole in her starboard bow, and caused her to sink in about eighteen inches of water. She came with some little difficulty, and arrived here with three hundred and twenty-five bales of cotton and fifty passengers, bound for Little Rock, which place they will hardly reach without a rise in the river.

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James R. Nichols & Co.
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, repolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination to no product resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular which can be had at the office of any and all first-class Druggists.
